

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Please Pray For All The Sick

Ann MacGillivray, Kenneth Hill, Fred Weber, Miyanna Figueroa, Brian Cabral, Mariana Weglinski, Boguslawa Cop, and Aissa Aro.

And we pray for those whose death anniversaries occur about this time that they may live in glory forever with God and all the Saints.

Pentecost Sunday

After the fast of Lent we pull out all stops to celebrate this most joyful season in the liturgical year. The fifty days of Easter come to an end with Pentecost. We've celebrated in many ways, singing Alleluias, sprinkling water to remember our baptism, lighting the Easter candle and displaying it. Now the Easter season draws to an end.

Pentecost is primarily a feast celebrating the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The gift of the Holy Spirit is at the heart of our transformation through baptism, where we receive the Spirit. Pentecost is a celebration of God indwelling the church. Jesus ascends the sign of the end of his earthly ministry, and then the disciples experience Pentecost, the anointing of the Holy Spirit in the upper room. They go forth to proclaim the Good News of Jesus' resurrection.

The flames part and come to rest on the disciples, and we hear "they were all filled with the Holy Spirit." To be filled with the Holy Spirit is to be moved to speech – to proclaiming God's presence in our lives and God's message to our world.

Throughout this day and the weeks ahead, let us not lose our grasp on our Easter joy, our sense of God's presence with us. Increase your awareness of what it means to be filled with the Holy Spirit, to live with the understanding that God is truly with us.

Thank you for your generous hearts.

This weekend is our third collection for our parish's ShareLife campaign. Our goal this year is $67,000. To date we have achieved $28,577.00.

ShareLife is more than a collection. It's a way we collectively say "we care." In solidarity with our fellow parishes, ShareLife demonstrates the strength of the archdiocese. We show the entire community the Catholic Church is actively providing social services in our archdiocese and the greater world.

If you have not done so, please consider making a gift to the campaign today. The Covid-19 pandemic has taught us so much about the needs of our community and our brothers and sisters. We each have a role to play, be it through financial support, prayer or both.

Thank you for supporting our parish's ShareLife campaign.
