

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Annie Hurley, Gregory Kelly, Fred Weber, Miyanna Figueroa, Mariana Weglinski, and Aissa Aro.

And we pray for those whose death anniversaries occur about this time that they may live in glory forever with God and all the Saints.

Pentecost Sunday

After the fast of Lent we pull out all stops to celebrate this most joyful season in the liturgical year. The fifty days of Easter come to an end with Pentecost. We've celebrated in many ways, singing Alleluias, sprinkling water to remember our baptism, lighting the Easter candle and displaying it. Now the Easter season draws to an end.

Pentecost is primarily a feast celebrating the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The gift of the Holy Spirit is at the heart of our transformation through baptism, where we receive the Spirit. Pentecost is a celebration of God indwelling the church. Jesus ascends the sign of the end of his earthly ministry, and then the disciples experience Pentecost, the anointing of the Holy Spirit in the upper room. They go forth to proclaim the Good News of Jesus' resurrection.

The flames part and come to rest on the disciples, and we hear "they were all filled with the Holy Spirit." To be filled with the Holy Spirit is to be moved to speech – to proclaiming God's presence in our lives and God's message to our world.

Throughout this day and the weeks ahead, let us not lose our grasp on our Easter joy, our sense of God's presence with us. Increase your awareness of what it means to be filled with the Holy Spirit, to live with the understanding that God is truly with us.

ShareLife-funded agencies turn no one away

Did you know no one is turned away from ShareLife-funded agencies due to inability to pay? This is all thanks to your compassionate and generous heart.

Through your support, ShareLife agencies are helping the most vulnerable in our community and around the world. Thank you for living the Gospel!

Thus far we have raised $38,185.65 toward our goal of $76,200.00.

The third ShareLife Sunday of the year is June 2. We ask you to share your blessings through the parish or at sharelife.org/donate. Thank you for living the Gospel!

Bereavement Ministry – Ministry of Consolation

We are pleased to announce we have newly formed a "Bereavement Ministry at St. Martin of Tours Parish. A team of volunteers have come together to provide bereaved parishioners and their families with hope, consolation and support during the period of mourning following the loss of a loved one. The goal of the Bereavement Ministry is that no member of the faith community grieves alone. The compassion of a loving God should be experienced by all who lose a loved one through the concern and caring of the parish members.

If you would like to know more about the Bereavement Ministry, please leave your name and contact number with the Parish Office staff and someone from the ministry will reach out.

JOIN US!!!

The Prayer Group invites you to join them for Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction on Wednesday, May 22nd
Praise and worship begins at 7:30pm followed by Exposition / Benediction.
