

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Please Pray For All The Sick

Christina Garde, Miyanna Figueroa, Brian Cabral, Lovrenco Zuvic, Ethel Nolan, Mariana Weglinski, Boguslaw Cop, Helena Lima, Remedios Vergara, and Aissa Aro.

And we pray for those whose death anniversaries occur about this time that they may live in glory forever with God and all the Saints.

HappyCanadaDay!

Canada Day gives us an opportunity to gather in our community and proudly celebrate all we have in common. It is an opportunity to celebrate our achievements, which were born in the audacious vision and shared values of our ancestors, and which are voiced in nearly all of the languages of the world through the contribution of new Canadians.

Canada Day is a time to celebrate the heritage passed down to us through the works of our authors, poets, artists and performers. It is a time to rejoice in the discoveries of our scientific researchers, in the success of our entrepreneurs, and to commemorate our history — a history in which each new chapter reveals itself to be more touching, more fascinating than the last.

Celebrate with some Canadian Tidbits.....

Did you know that Canada has the longest coastline in the world at 151,600 miles. (Scratch that, 243,976 km) we're on the metric system.

Canadians love beer. On the July 1st weekend, Canadians drink 1.2 million litres of beer. And we say "eh" a lot.

Famous Canadians born on July 1 – Pamela Anderson, Dan Ackroyd

All letters to Santa come to Canada. The address Santa Clause, North Pole is located in Canada and all letters from around the world go to that address where volunteers reply in more than 30 languages.

Canada has different chocolate bars from the United States. Wait, you might know them as Candy Bars. Popular chocolate bars here are Coffee Crisp and Smarties. We always eat the red ones last.

Canadians are not so big on lentils and yet, Saskatchewan is the largest exporter of lentils. They supply 65% of the world's lentils.

What is it with Canadians? We really do apologize a lot. When someone bumps into us, we are the ones saying sorry. It seems to be a very common thing. When you come to Canada, don't worry about offending anyone, most likely if you do, a Canadian will apologize for you.

A Graduate Blessing

God blessed you with unique talents and abilities, and you have used those gifts well.

*You've taken nothing for granted;
rather, you have worked hard to prepare for a challenging future.*

*Just as important as the lessons that you've learned in the classroom are the ways that you've grown as a person;
the friendships you have formed and the deeper understanding
you have acquired of yourself and others.*

*As you celebrate this milestone in your life and look towards a new horizon, never forget what has brought you this far.
Remember the love of your family and friends.
Remember your own sacrifice and hard work.
And remember that God has a special plan for your life.*

*You have so much to be thankful for and so much to look forward to.
may today mark the beginning of many new joys and accomplishments and a continuation of all of the good things that you have already achieved.*

Pamela Koehlinger

Congratulations and best wishes in everything you do.

*God Bless you.
